

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Preface | 7 |
| Kirsten Jæger Fjetland, Anita Gjermestad and Inger Marie Lid | |
| 1. Lived citizenship for persons in vulnerable life situations – theories and practices. Introduction | 9 |
| Kirsten Jæger Fjetland, Anita Gjermestad and Inger Marie Lid | |
| Lived citizenship in the context of older citizens, citizens with chronic conditions and dementia | |
| 2. Citizenship for persons with dementia in nursing homes: A literature review | 29 |
| Marianne Sund, Halvor Hanisch and Kirsten Jæger Fjetland | |
| 3. “A tune beyond us, yet ourselves”: An ethics of the unconscious and cultural citizenship in dementia | 46 |
| Oddgeir Synnes | |
| 4. Participation, civil society and citizenship later in life | 62 |
| Kjersti Helene Haarr and Karen Synne Groven | |
| 5. How may digital healthcare influence citizenship for people with chronic conditions? A narrative review | 79 |
| Silje Stangeland Lie, Kirsten Jæger Fjetland and Miroslava Tokovska | |
| Lived citizenship in the context of intellectual disability | |
| 6. The significance of relations. Rethinking autonomy in a disability perspective | 99 |
| Inger Marie Lid | |
| 7. Citizenship and human rights | 114 |
| Simon Duffy | |
| 8. Citizenship of resistance | 131 |
| Kirsten Jæger Fjetland | |
| 9. From struggles of belonging to struggles of becoming: Acts of resistance in the drama I Answered a Dream | 147 |
| Vibeke Glørstad | |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 10. Materiality and the enactment of citizenship in assisted living facilities for young adults | 162 |
| Kristina Hoydal and Hilde Thygesen | |
| 11. Citizenship for persons with profound intellectual disabilities – everyday living within professional care practices | 180 |
| Anita Gjermestad and Synne N. Skarsaune | |
| 12. Trauma-conscious understanding: A contribution to quality in professional relations and citizenship in environmental work | 196 |
| Hanne Line Wærness, Oliva Teigland and Anita Gjermestad | |
| 13. Self-determination and citizenship | 213 |
| Kirsten Jæger Fjetland and Peter Paluga | |
| A postscript by Ruth Bartlett | 232 |
| Authors | 235 |